Points of clarification

- Pricing is based on a per employee enrolled basis.
- Prices are set, they are not based on the current FX rate.
- The currency will default to your Billing Country address.
- You only need a minimum of one team of five to join the challenge.
- Exact programme duration is dependant on when you launch.
- Our “with device” price includes our Max Buzz activity tracker.
- Device fulfilment is done at a company level, if the “with device” pricing is selected, this will be applied to all of your employees enrolled.
- Please refer to the FAQs for additional information regarding shipping and logistics.
- Kick-Start does not include real time registration tracking, the total number of your employees that have registered will be provided at the point of invoicing. Please note, employee names and emails will not be provided at any stage.
- Please refer to the FAQs for best practice around enrolment management
- Kick-Start Challenge isn’t the same as GO Challenge. It includes a different service agreement, limited reporting capabilities and as such the pricing is reflected. If your needs are beyond this and you require additional support from a Client Success Manager, then please do contact us directly. Our minimum investment to unlock this additional service level is outlined is $10,000. Please request info to find out more.
